SYLLABUS

OPTI 595A
Current Subjects in Optics
Thursdays 3:30 PM – 4:45 PM, on Zoom

Description of Course
The purpose of OPTI 595A is to introduce students to different aspects of current research in the field of optics. The students are expected to attend the weekly optical sciences colloquium and to write a brief summary about each colloquium. A PDF of the summary has to be submitted through the OPTI 595A D2L course site (https://d2l.arizona.edu) by Thursday 3:30pm (Arizona Time) of the week following each colloquium presentation. The expectation is that there is a colloquium every week, with the exceptions provided by the university’s academic calendar. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Writing Assignments: For each colloquium, the students should answer the following questions:

▶ What is the key take home message of this talk?
▶ What are the relevant areas of application or impact of the topics presented?
▶ What have you learned from the presenter and the presentation?

Course Prerequisites or Co-requisites
None. This course may be repeated for a maximum of two times for credit.

Assignments and Examinations:
Students will prepare a brief summary for each colloquium. The report shall be single spaced, with 1” margins, and Times New Roman font no larger than 11 pt. Each summary will address the aforementioned questions. Each summary will be graded out of 10 points with the 9 best colloquia summaries counted towards the student’s final grade throughout the semester. A PDF has to be submitted through the OPTI 595A D2L course site (https://d2l.arizona.edu) by Thursday 3:30pm (Arizona Time) of the week following each colloquium presentation.

Final Examination or Project
There is no final exam for this course.

Grading Scale and Policies
The grading system for this course will result in grades from A (excellent) through E (failure).

Requests for incomplete (I) or withdrawal (W) must be made in accordance with University policies, which are available at http://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/grades-and-grading-system#incomplete and http://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/grades-and-grading-system#Withdrawal respectively.
Code of Academic Integrity

Students are encouraged to share intellectual views and discuss freely the principles and applications of course materials. However, graded work/exercises must be the product of independent effort unless otherwise instructed. Students are expected to adhere to the UA Code of Academic Integrity as described in the UA General Catalog. See:

http://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/academic-integrity/students/academic-integrity.

_Selling class notes and/or other course materials to other students or to a third party for resale is not permitted under any circumstances._ Violations to this and other course rules are subject to the Code of Academic Integrity and may result in course sanctions. Additionally, students who use D2L or UA e-mail to sell or buy these copyrighted materials are subject to Code of Conduct Violations for misuse of student e-mail addresses. This conduct may also constitute copyright infringement.

Also, students using images from the internet without citation is considered an act of plagiarism. If you have any questions regarding this, please see the instructor. The University Libraries have some excellent tips for avoiding plagiarism. See:

Accessibility and Accommodations

At the University of Arizona, we strive to make learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience physical or academic barriers based on disability or pregnancy, you are welcome to let me know so that we can discuss options. You are also encouraged to contact Disability Resources (520-621-3268) to explore reasonable accommodation.

Please be aware that the accessible table and chairs in this room should remain available for students who find that standard classroom seating is not usable.

Absence & Class Participation Policy

Participating in the course and attending lectures and other course events are vital to the learning process. As such, attendance is required at all lectures and laboratory sessions. Students who miss class due to illness or emergency are required to bring documentation from their health-care provider or other relevant, professional third parties. Failure to submit third-party documentation will result in unexcused absences.

The UA’s policy concerning Class Attendance, Participation, and Administrative Drops is available at: http://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/class-attendance-participation-and-administrative-drop

The UA policy regarding absences for any sincerely held religious belief, observance or practice will be accommodated where reasonable, http://policy.arizona.edu/human-resources-religious-accommodation-policy.

Absences pre-approved by the UA Dean of Students (or Dean Designee) will be honored. See: https://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/absences

Threatening Behavior Policy

The UA Threatening Behavior by Students Policy prohibits threats of physical harm to any member of the University community, including to oneself. See http://policy.arizona.edu/education-and-student-affairs/threatening-behavior-students.

UA Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy

The University is committed to creating and maintaining an environment free of discrimination; see http://policy.arizona.edu/human-resources/nondiscrimination-and-anti-harassment-policy

Our classroom is a place where everyone is encouraged to express well-formed opinions and their reasons for those opinions. We also want to create a tolerant and open environment where such opinions can be expressed without resorting to bullying or discrimination of others.

Classroom Behavior Policy

To foster a positive learning environment, students and instructors have a shared responsibility.
We want a safe, welcoming, and inclusive environment where all of us feel comfortable with each other and where we can challenge ourselves to succeed. To that end, our focus is on the tasks at hand and not on extraneous activities (e.g., texting, chatting, reading a newspaper, making phone calls, web surfing, etc.).
